COMING TO A PARK NEAR YOU: FREE JULY CONCERTS AND MOVIES

INDIANAPOLIS – (June 24, 2010) Each year, Indy Parks and Recreation produces a full season of music, movies and more for you and your family. Featuring a wide variety of artistic styles - classical and popular, fun and romantic, hot and smooth - we bring it all to a comfortable outdoor setting near you. From folk music at Eagle Creek Park to jazz and blues at Watkins Park, there is a colorful selection of concerts and artists for all. Most events are free, and all feature gifted local and regional artists that you're sure to enjoy.

Eagle Creek Park's free and alternating series of concerts continue in July on Wednesday evenings at the Marina. A premier performance at the In Concert with Nature series celebrates the talents of Sarah Grain on July 7 while the following Wednesday Jazz on the Point offers park favorite Cynthia Layne on July 14. The following In concert with Nature presentation features Circle City Blue Grass on July 21 and Rob Dixon & Triology complete the jazz offering on July 28. Concerts start at 6:30 p.m. $5 gate fee still applies.

We have five free Pops concerts scheduled on Thursdays at 7 p.m. in July at the MacAllister Amphitheater in Garfield Park.

- The Greater Greenwood Community Band on July 1
- New Horizons on July 8
- Pride of Indy on July 15
- The Indianapolis Municipal Band on July 22
- Athenaeum Pops Orchestra on July 29
